Permission for construction of retaining wall in Vasant Vihar

1144. SHRI PUTTAPAGA RADHAKRISHNA Will the Minister of URBAN DEVELOPMENT be pleased to refer to the answer to Unstarred Question 3041 given in the Rajya Sabha on 19th August, 1988 and state:

(a) whether prior permission was obtained by the CPWD to construct the retaining wall towards the East side along the boundary of the plot in Vasant Vihar;

(b) whether prior permission was also obtained by the CPWD for constructing the retaining wall near Block No. 66;

(c) whether the CPWD has taken up the matter with the Local Bodies for relaxation of bye-laws in this case; and

(d) if so, the reaction of the Local Bodies thereto and if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF URBAN DEVELOPMENT (SHRI DALBIR SINGH): (a) to (c) Construction of retaining walls within the residential colony needed in case of differences in the ground level to protect the earth from slipping and getting eroded, is a technical requirement and no prior permission of any authority is needed by the C.P.W.D., except where such construction is likely to violate any local bye-law.

Since the construction of the retaining wall towards the East side along the boundary of the plot and of the retaining wall near Block No. 66 in Vasant Vihar, New Delhi were a technical necessity, and did not violate any local bye-law, no prior permission was obtained by the C.P.W.D. therefor.

(d) Does not arise in view of reply to parts (a), (b) and (c) above.
